THE CHILD'S WORLD

Little  had a

It was a big box.

She said, "I will fill my box."

She found violets,

lots of pretty violets.

She put violets

into a vase.

Then she put
the vase
into her box.

Little  found a piece

of velvet,

very pretty velvet.

She made a velvet vest.

She put on the vest.

Then she put velvet all around her box.

Little  found a  veil of lace.

She said, "I can make something
with my violets,
my velvet,

and my veil."

Guess what Little  made?

She made  valentines,
valentines,
valentines.

She found a valentine verse.

She wrote the verse on her valentines.

She filled her box with valentines.

She pasted valentines all around it.

But some valentines fell out of the box.

"I have so many valentines,"
she said.

"I will give them to my friends."

So Little  invited all her friends to come to a party.

She put valentine notes into envelopes. She put names on the envelopes.

What else did she do?

Little  got into her van and drove to the mailbox.

Then Little  cleaned the house

with the vacuum cleaner.

"The vacuum cleaner will clean up this mess," she said.

At last it was time for the valentine
party.

All her friends came. They brought valentines.

Little and her friends made
hats.

What pretty valentine hats
they made.

Then they opened the valentines.

What fun they had

at the valentine party.
